

THE GRAMMY MUSEUM AFFILIATE PROGRAM

To further its education initiatives and mission, the GRAMMY Museum seeks to engage like-minded cultural institutions, both universities and cultural centers, in a collaborative and unique approach to arts education and outreach through its affiliate program.

As a GRAMMY Museum affiliate educational institutions would have access to the following:

- Access to GRAMMY Museum database of approved music historians/professionals to use as guest speakers/lecturers on campus
- Co-produced educational seminars and programming
- Curriculum resources
- Discounted rates for hosting GRAMMY Museum traveling exhibits
- Help with building and teaching non-traditional classes
- Internship program for students with college credit
- Logo and brand use, as approved by GRAMMY Museum
 - Limited rights license (gratis) for co-created content
- Museum content for educational purposes
 - Includes jointly created lessons and access to all current Museum curricula
 - Including, but not limited to, photos/interviews/archives
- Potential “Museum Education Professional” major/minor at university
 - Music Museum minor
- Presence on GRAMMY Museum website and social media outlets
- Professional development seminars at GRAMMY Museum and universities
- Project based learning for students in a Museum setting
 - Research projects, caption writing for credit
- Shared member/student benefits
 - Students and faculty receive discounted access to GRAMMY Museum
 - Discounted use of GRAMMY Museum facilities and on Museum membership and merchandise
- Subscription to GRAMMY Museum Affiliates quarterly newsletters
 - Opportunity to share your story with other affiliates

To apply for the GRAMMY Museum Affiliate Program, please submit the following:

- Organization mission statement
- Organization strategic and educational plan

